Mario Lopez 'Extra' excited to be a dad

Mario Lopez is a busy guy. The TV host was in town last week filming segments for his syndicated entertainment Extra! He will release his new book, Extra Lean, next month and is prepping for the finale of America's Best Dance Crew.

We caught up with the 36-year-old at Ocean Drive's News Cafe, where he talked about his biggest project: becoming a first-time dad.

"I feel very blessed to be as busy as I am and have all the things going on in my life. I don't take it for granted," he says. "I'm going to continue to work hard, probably harder than ever now that I'm having a kid."

That he's left the Bell "I still much li... "We'll b... together... When baby, Lopez and girlfriend Courtney Mazza want to be surprised.

"I'm fired up and really excited but want to wait and see what I'm having," he said. "I want the reaction at the last minute. Where else can you get a great surprise like that?" When the little one comes, Lopez says he'll have plenty of energy. After all, he's used to working out hard. But how does the dimpled-face hunk keep in shape?

"There are no secrets," he says. "Do what you love and try to keep things interesting... I do boxing, swimming, running, yoga... a little bit of everything."

For his book, Lopez partnered with his

What we're checking out this week

WATCH
Reconnect with your inner g(Deek Tuesday as Glee returns to Fox after a four-month hiatus. What's in store for New Directions this year? Guest stars (Nell Patrick Harris, Idina Menzel, Kelly Shannon and the returning Kristin Chenoweth), Lady Gaga songs and a Madonna-themed episode with a set list that features hits Foggy and Like a Virgin. Those McKinley High School singers are going for extra credit with all those tunes: A seven-track set, The Music, the Power of Madonna is already available for pre-order on iTunes and Amazon.com.

SPA WEEK
Miami's Spa Week runs Monday through Sunday, giving you discounted treatments — $50 a pop! — at a bundle of South Florida's finest stress-busting and beautifying facilities. Highlights include a 50-minute Fusion Hot Shell Massage at Seven Seas Spa and a 100-minute Caribbean Hand & Foot Retreat at The Palms. Get more recommendations at Miami.com, or find the full menu of participants at spaweeek.com.

GO & DO
Join Miami Beach Mayor Matti Bower as the second Gay Pride Miami Beach event kicks off Saturday with Jeffrey Donovan of USA's Burr Norice as grand marshal of the 22nd annual

After the walk, the all-day event features a parade, musical performances from Crystal Waters, Robin S and Esterle, and an expo with LGBT-friendly vendors and businesses, refreshments and a family play zone.

FASHION
The hot accessory for men at the Winter Music Conference? The Yak Pak, seen on Pitbull, Lil Jon and German house DJ (Real World London) Lars Schlichting. For its 20th anniversary, the NYC-based company has created the Billboard, a functional, eco-friendly, water-resistant line of wallets, messenger bags and sleeves. Each is one of a kind and made from a different cut of billboard vinyl that would have likely ended up in a landfill. Feel free to recycle them, says founder Stephen Holt. "They're designed and constructed so well that when a consumer is done using them, they can be donated or handed down again and again." $35 at Urban Outfitters, Best Buy and yakpak.com.
