

Sex and the City local fashion events and online retail offers

by: Rod Hagwood

May 18th, 2010 | 11:55 AM

"Sex and the City 2" is porn for fashionistas.

It is THE fashion film of the summer. Even if the Cinderella-sequel is a dud, it's still a big fashion story. Glamazons will oooh and aaah at ever designer outfit... even if the plot is nonexistent.

POSSIBLE SPOILER ALERT: Already we hear that the over-the-top fashion – save for that well-publicized Abu Dhabi vacation – has been calmed down a bit for SATC2. But the franchise's stylist Patricia Field did find a place for the John Galliano for Christian Dior "newspaper" dress from season 3 of the HBO series....so if the movie is porn, then that might be the money shot.

But like any good fashion story, there is a way for you to access the movie – y'know, other than scoffing down Cosmos – and bring a little movie magic into your own reality.

The Seven Seas Aveda Spa and Salon in Sunny Isles is featuring four SATC2 spa packages that complement each of the movie's four lady leads. The special offer – with reduced prices – runs until June 30th.

1. The Charlotte is "fit for a Manhattan princess" with a blow out and a pedicure for $50.

2. The Samantha is "sensual and seductive" with deep tissue massage; 40-minute reflexology; Green Science Skin-renewing Facial; Perfecting Plant Peel for $175.

3. The Carrie gives "typing and texting hands a rest" with a 45-minute Elemental Nature Manicure with a hand massage, masque and an Aveda hair cut and flat/curling iron styling for $70.

4. The Miranda helps you "avoid any hairy situations" with a full leg, underarm and bikini wax as well as a Fusion "Hot Shell" Massage with Indonesian Tiger Shells for $150. The spa is in the Newport Beachside Hotel and Resort at 16701 Collins Avenue in Sunny Isles. For appointments, call (305) 749-2100 or visit the website NewportBeachside.com.

Seven Seas Aveda Spa and Salon in the Newport Beachside Hotel and Resort in Sunny Isles.